

I'll Be Praising The Lord

Words & Music by Weldon C. Kennedy

I'll be prais-ing the Lord, At the break of day,
I'll be giv-ing Him praise, in the noon-day sun,
With the pass-ing of years, as the hair turns gray, Praise the Lord! Praise the

I'll be prais-ing the Lord in the morn of my life with the words I
I'll be giv-ing Him praise in the liv-ing of life as the race I Lord! I'll be firm in my faith in the Lord as I come to the fin-al say, the words I say, I'll be sing-ing His praise, the re-deem-er of run, the race I run, I'll be talk-ing of grace, the for-giv-ing of day, the fin-al day, I'll be look-ing a-bove, know-ing where I have men and how He saved me from my sin; I'll sing a song and sin, and how it's Je-sus that I'm in; I'll sing a song and been, but ask-ing Lord, do take me in; I'll sing a song and Sing a song and

© Weldon C. Kennedy, 1978

© Revised Copyright, Weldon C. Kennedy, 2004

CCLI P36420

Chorus

15

praise the Lord. I'll be sing - ing a song, Sing a praise the Lord. Lord. Lord. Give Him Praise. praise the Lord. Praise the Lord.

20

I'll be giv - ing Him praise. Give Him Praise. I'll be walk - ing and song;

23

talk - ing, serv - ing Je - sus for all my days, yes all my Prais - ing all my days, yes all my 26

I'll be wait - ing for Him Wait for Him, to come for days.

29

me Come for me to live in hea-ven for e - ter - ni - ty.