

For A Little While

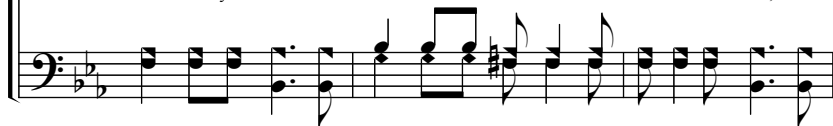

Words & Music by Weldon C. Kennedy

To the girl be-ing mar-ried, to the boy that you chose, we wish you the best that our Now the girl is a wo-man and the boy is a man, we pray you'll be do-ing the hearts can sup-pose. May life treat you gent-ly and ev-er so kind; you best that you can to love one an-o-ther and ev-er be true; and have a place a-head, you've-left a space-be-hind. Life was so much simp-ler in the may you not for-get, we'll still be lov-ing you. We are mel-an-chol-y that our days when you were small; Per-haps you broke a toy, some-times you took a fall. but child has gone a-way, and yet we have a joy for what you are to-day; We

14

it was so much eas - i - er to brush the tears a - way and see your smile re - turn, to tru - ly count our blessings for so much that we have had, and smil - ing thru our tears, we know you were o - kay. For a lit - tle while we had you at home; for a still can feel so glad. For a while we had you at home; lit - tle while and now you are grown. For a lit - tle while, a lit - tle while our for a - while and now you are grown. For a while, for a - while our lives were made so bright. We - re so thank - ful for hav - ing you a lit - tle while.

17

Chorus

20

24

D.C. Al Fine

Fine